TO THE DEATH.

Colonel Goodloe Stabs Colonel Swope Thirteen times. The Knife Wielder Receives a bullet in the Abdomen.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 8.—At 1:40 p.m. this afternoon Colonel Wilson Cassius Goodloe, member of republican national committee collector of internal revenue of Seventh Kentucky district, and Colonel Armstead M. Swope, a prominent republican, met in the postoffice corridor and when each saw the other they glared at each other, when one of the two, it cannot be discovered which, exclaimed:
"You spoke to me. You insulted me."

This was followed by some angry words from the other man and a moment later the two men drew weapons at the same moment, Swope a revolver and Goodloe a clasp knife.

As soon as the weapons were drawn Swope fired and Goodloe knocked the pistol down as it went down, but the ball entered his abdomen on the right side.

Goodloe then began stabbing his opponent in the breast with his knife which forced Swope backward toward the money order drawer, they having begun the fight about midway in the lobby.

After several blows had been struck by Goodloe, Swope fired again but missed Goodloe and a moment later fell on his face within about ten feet of the door leading into the money order department and died almost instantly.

On Swope's person were found thirteen wounds, on his back, arms and breast.

Immediately after killing Colonel Swope, Goodloe walked to physicians office where his wounds were examined. He was perfectly cool and made a disposition of his property in case he died.

The cause of the difficulty was a statement made in the republican convention of May 1, 1888, by Colonel Goodloe that fully two-thirds of the Fayette county delegation in convention did not speak to Swope.

Colonel Goodloe has for years been a prominent man in Kentucky politics; was minister to Belgium under Hayes and a member of the national republican committee and chairman of the committee on speakers. He is about 48 years of age, married and has eight children.

LATER. Col. Goodloe, died from the effects of his wound Sunday, at 1 o'clock. Before he died he joined the Episcopal church and was baptized.

Goodloe's statement of the difficulty after he was told that he could not live made Swope the aggressor, as he drew his revolver and shot Goodloe just as the latter got his knife open. Goodloe said that, feeling he had received a death wound, he cut him until he fell.

"It's only a question of time," and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

The animal was gaily attired and followed by an immense mob.

Impure Blood the Cause of Rheumatism HOW IT SHOULD BE TREATED TO EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.

The supreme importance of purifying the blood and of restoring the diseased liver and kidneys to a healthy action has indeed made this subject one of great study, the results of which have enabled us to present to the afflicted, Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, a combination of the best known remedies. Prepared by the Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.
By cures unprecedented, it has proven its right to the title of "The greatest blood purifier and kidney and liver cure ever discovered." We challenge any medicine to show an appreciation at home like that which has been poured upon Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup.

"Gabe," in the Review, acting on the suggestion of the TIMES has immortalized himself in the following grand jury report on our county jail:

"We find the jail a commodious brick building, with all modern improvements, and an honor (put dis) before that word if prepared) to Bates county, one of the finest counties in the state; and we would also recommend that other counties having prisoners they wish to get rid of and have not evidence enough to hang them, that they be respectfully solicited to send them to our well ventilated jail, to kill them by degrees. We would also invite counties contemplating building a jail to examine our building and get plans, specifications, etc. All of which is respectfully submitted."

Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup.

There is certainly something remarkable in this preparation, as it is meeting with a success never attained by any other medicine. It never fails when used as directed.

For over twenty years I have been a great sufferer from the effects of a diseased stomach and for the past three years have been unable to do business.
Two years ago my case was pronounced incurable. Last June I began using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and at once began to feel better. I have used thirteen bottles and am a well man.

That Little Ticking

In your throat, which makes you cough once in a while and keeps you constantly clearing your throat, arises from catarrh, and as catarrh is a constitutional disease the ordinary cough medicines all fail to hit the spot. What you need is a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Many people who have taken this medicine for scrofula, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and other troubles, have been surprised that it should cure this troublesome cough.
But to know the actual cause of the cough is to solve the mystery. Many cases of consumption can be traced back to the neglect of some such slight affection as this. Consumption can be controlled in its early stages, and the effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in purifying the blood, building up the general health, and expelling the scrofulous taint which is the cause of catarrh and consumption, has restored to perfect health, many persons on whom this dreaded disease seemed to have a firm hold.

"Yes, we had an election in Iowa," said Mr. S. Fennell of Hamburg, Ia., who is at the Midland. "It was a surprise to everyone and a clean knockout for the democrats. One year ago the man who predicted that Iowa would go democratic was regarded as a fit subject for a guardian, but since November 5 the democrats are claiming the earth and say that Iowa will never return to republicanism. Bois, the governor elect, will make a good executive and though he will be stared at for some time as being the first democratic governor, he will give the voters no reason to regret their choice.—K. C. Times.

In its treatment of rheumatism and all rheumatic troubles Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup stands first and foremost above all others. Read their medical pamphlet, and learn of the great medicinal value of the remedies which enter into its composition. Sold by all druggists. 44-1-37

The TIMES recently received a long and interesting letter from Hon. J. H. Hinton, who is in the Interior department at Washington city. He is homesick for his western home and is coming back in the spring. He said: "I am satisfied that one township in glorious old Bates can produce more corn than an entire county in Maryland or any one of the New England states. I am further convinced that Kansas City and surrounding country can stitute the "Eden" of the United States and that greater results can be realized therein than elsewhere." Mr. Hinton has many strong friends here who will join with the TIMES in welcoming him back to his first love.

Do You Suffer From Rheumatism.

No one who has not been sufferer can have any idea of the excruciating agony caused by rheumatism. This painful disease is frequently caused by a stoppage of the circulation of the blood, through the muscular portions of the body. BALLARD'S SNOW LIN-IMENT will invariably cure this disease by penetrating every spot of the skin and drawing to the outer surface all poisonous matter and restoring a natural circulation of the blood. Every bottle guar-
